Extra Football Coaching

Our Year 3/4 girls' football team and our first team (small schools category) have both reached the County Finals in January 2017 so I have arranged for some extra lunchtime coaching just for the children involved in this. There will be three sessions on a Tuesday lunchtime (10th, 17th, 24th January) and children must have their full kit in school to take part. All sessions will go ahead whatever the weather so please make sure they have waterproofs if rain is forecast. The actual competition will take place on AstroTurf so the children will need appropriate footwear and shin pads are compulsory.

Mustard Seed Café

This Sunday it's the start of our new St Bartholomew's family church called Mustard Seed Cafe. This is for children aged 0-11 years and starts at 10am til 10.45am at Wilmslow Parish Hall (by the Carrs car park). There will be stories, songs, crafts and activities for the children and breakfast and conversation for the grown-ups. All are very welcome.

Kitchen News

Welcome to Carol Holmes, our new cook who will be joining Laura in the kitchen. Carol has got off to a flying start this week and the children have been really impressed with the lunches. We already have a Come Lunch with Me event booked in for the children next week and are planning a family lunch during Global Week too.

Cheshire Catering who provide our kitchen services have taken the opportunity to audit all aspects of their provision, including snack time. Next Tuesday the children will be involved in a tasting event to determine any changes to the snack menu which is very exciting.

One area that requires immediate attention is the payment of snack money by pupils. Approximately 30% of the children who went to purchase snacks this week did not have any money with them, saying they had paid already (they hadn't) or that they would pay the next day (and didn't). The kitchen cannot operate in this way as it means losing approximately £15.00 per week (a loss of £570 over the course of the year)

From Monday, therefore, children will only be able to purchase snacks if they have paid in advance and this has been noted on the register the kitchen will now keep, or if they have the money on the day. I'm afraid that if children do not have payment then snack will not be available for them. The preferred method of payment is daily, although weekly and half termly payment will be accepted but this MUST be sent in an envelope marked for the kitchen's attention with your child's name on it. All snack items will remain at 20p per item.
