

Dear Parents,

Our Patron of Reading,

John Malam,

is coming back to the school to work with the children just before Easter. These are some of the many books he has written.

He is very happy to sign and dedicate books for the children.

If your child would like one of these, please could you take an order form and complete it, before returning it to school with the appropriate amount, for the attention of Mrs Clark.

Thank you!