This is amongst my best work.

Dear Mr and Mrs Smith,

I am very Sorry to Say that your son John has died. We were attacking and John was checking to see if it was clear, when a Sniper Shot him. I picked him up and held in my arms. He had a quick death and I cared for him to the end.

I remember when we were children and we were playing in the woods. I fell over and broke my leg, but John helped me up and looked after me. He said everything would be alright, as long as we were together. He was such a great friend.

John was the bravest soldier I have ever met. He was great to fight along side and the best friend I could of have ever had. He was valient, patriotic, confident, intent, Strong, Spirited and moral.

I am Sure John would have prefered to die fighting for his country, rather then growing old and having a slow and Suffering death.

He told me how much he loved you. I know his family meant more than anything to him. He will be missed greatly and died in vain He will be remembered in our hearts.

Wrong way round!

Yours Sincerely

Peter
