

My Garden

I took some photos of the plants and insects in the garden.

We drew a background with the plants and I painted it, then I cut out cardboard insects and stuck on the legs. We made a spider's web from white wool and glue.

When I had painted the insects and they were dry, we stuck them onto the background, changing their positions to make different pictures.

